

I am actor whose first tv job was in 1954 when tv was "live". I haveworked,intermittedly, like most of us,since then. I believe that local broadcasting, as opposed to homogenization leading to corporate consolidation, is a danger to democracy, as well to the local economies.